

Webinar – The EU Foreign Subsidies Regulation: Companies doing business in Switzerland

On October 12, 2023, the new notification obligations for large concentrations and public procurement tenders falling under the European Foreign Subsidies Regulation (FSR) will enter into force. The FSR affects Swiss companies and foreign groups operating in Switzerland likewise. In light of the broad definition of subsidy (including e.g. tax benefits, grants, loans, guarantees) companies should start preparing for the implementation of the FSR.

Published: 14 September 2023
Updated: 21 September 2023

AUTHORS

Marcel Meinhardt
François-Charles Laprèvote
Nicole Calo-Niiranen
Lukas Aebi

Partner, Head of Competition
Partner, Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP
Head of Antitrust, ABB
Associate

EXPERTISE

Competition and Regulated Markets

Update Competition – The EU Foreign Subsidies Regulation: Companies doing business in Switzerland

