

Webinar – The EU Foreign Subsidies Regulation: Companies doing business in Switzerland

On October 12, 2023, the new notification obligations for large concentrations and public procurement tenders falling under the European Foreign Subsidies Regulation (FSR) will enter into force. The FSR affects Swiss companies and foreign groups operating in Switzerland likewise. In light of the broad definition of subsidy (including e.g. tax benefits, grants, loans, guarantees) companies should start preparing for the implementation of the FSR.

Published: 14 September 2023

AUTHORS	Marcel Meinhardt	Partner, Head of Competition
	François-Charles Laprèvote	Partner, Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP
	Nicole Calo-Niiranen	Head of Antitrust, ABB
	Lukas Aebi	Partner

EXPERTISE	Competition and Regulated Markets
-----------	-----------------------------------

Update Competition – The EU Foreign Subsidies Regulation: Companies doing business in Switzerland

