EXPERTISE

Anna David is an assistant based at our Geneva office, having joined the firm in 2023. She previously worked in the fashion industry along with the completion of her university studies. She graduated with a double Bachelor's degree in Business administration (University of Avignon, France) as well as in Law, focusing on International and European Law (University of Toulouse, France). She has been a student representative at the Executive board of the university of Avignon during four years. She also studied International economics in the first year of Master's degree, after what she started working as an insurance advisor. She had the opportunity to travel, study and work across several European countries, which allowed her to gain openness and experience in many different types of academic backgrounds and companies.
