EXPERTISE

After graduating from high school in 1992, Corina Graner began her career as an assistant in the Corporate and M&A team based in Zurich, where she has worked ever since. Along with day-to-day administrative and organisational tasks, Corina takes care of corporate law matters such as conducting board and general shareholders' meetings for our corporate clients. She is also responsible for the recruitment process of associates and trainee lawyers, and supporting the relevant hiring partner.
