EXPERTISE

Karine Obermaier is based at our Geneva office, where she coordinates all front-desk activities – receiving clients, scheduling meetings, and managing incoming calls and emails. She has a passion for engaging with our international clientele using her language skills in German, English and French. Originally from Germany, Karine first joined our firm in 2023 as a receptionist, bringing with her a wealth of experience gained in the hospitality and spa sectors. She previously worked as a front office manager and spa manager, gaining nine years of expertise at prestigious hotels on the Côte D’Azur, including in Monaco, followed by a further five years in France at Lyon’s largest city spa.
