

Leonard Vijverberg

Associate
Attorney at Law, Registered Trust and Estate Practitioner

Languages

Dutch, English, French, German

Geneva Office

Telephone +41 58 450 70 00
leonard.vijverberg@lenzstaehelin.com

Expertise

Leonard Vijverberg is a senior associate in Lenz & Staehelin's Private Client group since July 2007. His practice includes advising on international estate planning, issues of international private law, international investment and corporate structures as well as international contract and commercial law. Leonard Vijverberg also advises trustees in relation to trusts and has particular expertise in foundation matters.

Practice Areas

Commercial and Contracts, Corporate and M&A, Private Clients, International Estate and Tax Planning, Private Investment Companies and Funds, Foundations

Education and Professional Experience

1999 University of Utrecht (lic. iur.)
1999 Attorney at Law at Van Benthem & Keulen (the Netherlands)
2002 Admission to Bar of Utrecht, the Netherlands
2006 University of Geneva (Master of Advanced Studies (MAS) in Business Law)
2006 Legal Counsel with STMicroelectronics NV
2007 Associate at Lenz & Staehelin

Memberships

Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP)

Publications (Selection)

- > Barmes, M., Vijverberg, L., Breitenstein, S., Greter, A., Relevant changes for trustees in final ordinance of the Financial Institutions Act, Lenz & Staehelin Update Newsflash, November 2019
- > Vijverberg, L., Barmes, M., Modernisation of Swiss succession law under way, in: International Law Office, 11 October 2018
- > Barmes, M., Greter, A., Vijverberg, L., Relocating to Switzerland, in: Practical Law, Global Guide 2017/18, Private Client
- > Barmes, M., Vijverberg, L., New trustee licensing requirements on the horizon, in: The International Law Office newsletter - 20 September 2018