Expertise

Tanja Luginbühl is an expert in insolvency and restructuring, private clients and corporate and M&A. She has been involved in various national and cross-border insolvency and restructuring cases representing companies, banks and creditors. She leads the Insolvency and Restructuring group of Lenz & Staehelin in Zurich. In addition, she advises Swiss and foreign private clients regarding succession matters, international trust and estate planning and charity law. She has experience in handling trust matters and providing family office services. Also, she has an extensive expertise in aircraft lease and finance transactions.

Tanja Luginbühl is praised for being "very responsive, fast and manages her team well. She is also very capable of responding to unusual questions that come up in large and complex cases" (Chambers and Partners Europe, 2019). Legal 500 recommends her as a lawyer in the Restructuring and Insolvency practice area and reports that she is "a 'good strategic and conceptual thinker' who offers a very high level of professionalism and a deep understanding of business needs". Women in Business Law Guide 2019 listed Tanja Luginbühl as leading practitioner in the Restructuring and Insolvency field.
